CONKLING WILL BE SECRETARY OF STOCK EXCHANGE

That the Honolulu Stock Exchange will have a paid secretary commencing August 1 was the report that was current about Merchant street today. The report further said that D. L. Conkling had accepted the position tendered to him recently. Seen by a Star-Bulletin representative, Conkling declined to comment on the report. For some time past the directors of the stock exchange have been contemplating the engaging of a secretary who would be compensated for giving the time and attention to the work that its increase in volume appeared to them to demand. Conkling was their choice and the position was offered to him as was exclusively published in the Star-Bulletin. He took the offer under advisement and the report today was of his favorable decision.

It was pointed out today that Conkling is thoroughly fitted for the position, and the fact that he accepts it need have no bearing whatever on his continuing as city and county treasurer since others have filled that office and tended to their own business affairs at the same time, and in so doing have filled the office with credit and success and that Conkling will do the same.

INVESTIGATION OF COMPLAINT AGAINST CAPT. FREEMAN HELD

The testimony has been taken under advisement by the inspectors to ascertain whether there is sufficient evidence to warrant a trial.

The following men were called to testify. Capt. T. K. Smith, First Officer James P. Rasmussen, Third Officer Julian Humphrey, all from the Lurline; Capt. Wm. K. Freeman, First Officer Henry Beese from the Mauna Kea, and Assistant Harbor Master Wm. H. Curtis.

BERLIN ASSERTS TWO HITS MADE ON ENEMY SHIP

The official German statement on the torpedoing of a British dreadnought on July 20 came by cable today. The Associated Press dispatch from London yesterday said that the British admiral denied the warship had been touched. The German report says:

"A German submarine on July 20, off the British naval point d'Appui and Scipie, Orkney Islands, attacked a British dreadnought and obtained two torpedo hits.

"A German air squadron on July 25 attacked and bombed Russian aerostation of Oerel on the island of Oesel. Air garages and aeroplane which were ready to start were hit. Though heavily shelled by the enemy's torpedo boats, and battle planes, German attack was methodically outcarried, all our flyers returned unharmed."

BRITISH STATESMEN SEES NEW WORLD AFTER WAR

Lord Rosebery in discoursing of probable conditions in Great Britain after the war speaks of the army thus: "Our millions of men will return with a new spirit and new view of the world. They will be supermen, and they must inevitably control the future of this country. They will bring back self-respect and respect for others. Character is another inestimable asset that they will bring us." The suffragettes and the feminists generally have been dreaming fondly of a post-bellum England which shall be under their control, but it is probable Rosebery has the clearer vision; at least he has the authority of history. Ordinarily the nation that comes out of a desperate war with even a moderate degree of success is essentially masculine in its ideas for a good while afterward. Great Britain is likely to be distinctly a man's country when it gets through its fight, a country that will be run with small patience for feminine fads. And what will be true in Great Britain will be true in other European countries, only the change from former conditions will be less marked. Detroit Free Press.

LANDSDOWNE DEFENDS VIEWS.

LONDON, Eng., July 12.—The Marquis of Lansdowne, replying in a written statement today of John Redmond's charge that his speech in the House of Lords recently was a declaration of war against Ireland, announced that the speech was made after consultation with Premier Asquith and other members of the government.

"In making my statement," he writes, "I did not intend to go, and do not consider that I did go, beyond the declaration made by the prime minister in the House of Commons that the union of six counties with the rest of Ireland could only be brought about with, and could never be brought about without, the free will and consent of the excluded areas."

"My statement represented what I believe to be views of the government and were made after consultation with the prime minister and others of my colleagues."

THE TRAMP'S SOLILOQUY.

Geel! I wish't I was a rock
Yonder on the hill,
Doin' nothin' all day long,
Only settin' still;
Jest soliloquizin' like,
For a century,
On the ups and downs of life,
Chumps these mortals be!
Human bein's work an' toil,
Fuss, an' fume, an' fret,
Then they die; but there's that rock
Jest th' same, you bet.
Rocks don't have no discontent;
They don't notice things
Which would make 'em like mankind,
Full of sufferings;
They jest set an' set an' set,
Soakin' in the sun;
That's the kind o' job I like!
Work like that is fun!

Trampin's all right—in its way—
Still, I'd rather be
Like a rock thar—in a trance—
Restin' constantly.
Lazzy? Me? Well, I don't know!
I'm too strong to work!
Like a rock, I seldom move—
Hurts me jest to shirk.
If I could have my way on earth,
I'd be like a rock:
Wouldn't eat, nor sleep, nor stir—
Wouldn't walk—nor talk;
Wouldn't even dream—nor breathe—
Darned ef I would wash!
I'd jest lay still a thousand years
An' rest myself, b'gosh!

UNITED STATES RAILROADS ARE PAID A TRIBUTE

Conservative Yet Progressive Part in Upbuilding Country Told Rotarians

Responsibilities of railroads not only to the public but to their stockholders, and the value of railroads in building up communities and commonwealths, were emphasized in an interesting paper read before the Rotary Club at lunch today by H. E. Vernon, general agent here of the Santa Fe system. The paper touched not only on the general principles of railroading, particularly rate-making, but also on the public welfare problems involved. In closing he paid a strong tribute to the railroads of the United States in looking after the comfort, safety and convenience of passengers.

E. A. Bernat, chairman of the club's new civic affairs committee, reported on the committee's first attendance at a meeting of the board of supervisors. Hereafter one member of the committee will attend each board meeting, reporting in his turn to the club.

H. W. Gibson, a Rotarian visitor from Muskogee, Oklahoma, gave Oklahoma's cordial greetings to the local club.

The attendance was large today and several plans were made for participation in public affairs. The club probably will take some part in the forthcoming Kalakaua Day celebration.

LONGWORTH BETS HATS.

WASHINGTON.—Representative "Nick" Longworth of Ohio, son-in-law of Colonel Roosevelt, predicted in the house Thursday afternoon while discussing the new Democratic revenue and tax bill, that for this and other "sins of omission and commission" the Democratic party would be defeated next fall.

Longworth said he would provide each surviving Democratic member of the ways and means committee with a new hat if the Republican majority in the next house falls below 100.

Comptroller of the Currency Williams issued a call to national banks for reports of their condition as of June 30.

MAIL ORDER METHODS
Mr. Herman Rosenthal, advertising manager for Sears, Roebuck & Co., of Chicago, recently told the members of the American Ad Club one of the methods by which that company extended its trade.
"We have a bureau whose duty it is to read, each week, the country newspapers from all over the country. There is not a paper of any consequence in our large territory that our bureau does not get. This bureau looks over these papers, and when we find a town where the merchants are not advertising in the local paper, we immediately flood that territory with our literature. It always brings results far in excess of the same effort put forth in territory where the local merchants all the time use their local paper."
